

Janet E. Holsapple

July 24, 2016

Janet E. Holsapple, 70, of New Baltimore, N.Y., passed away peacefully in her home on July 24th.

Born in Melrose, Massachusetts, she was the daughter of the late John E. Ryder and Ebba (Larsen) Ryder. Following her formal higher education, Janet taught 5th grade in Leverett, Massachusetts. Her natural ability to teach profoundly improved the lives of many appreciative students.

Janet and family later moved to New Baltimore, N.Y. where she resided for over forty years. She was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Her bright and beautiful smile, energetic personality, and sense of humor warmed many hearts. If at all possible, she would be courtside, in the stands or on the sidelines watching and encouraging her kids, grandkids and all their teammates.

In addition to her parents, Janet is predeceased by her sister, Virginia M. Ryder formerly of Arlington, Va.

She is survived by her husband of 49 years, John G. Holsapple, a daughter, Lisa M. Kerrigan and her husband Michael, a son, Thomas E. Holsapple and his wife, Christine, grandchildren, Jack Kerrigan, Kyle Kerrigan, Barrett Holsapple, and Wade Holsapple; a niece, Kristin Holsapple, nephews, Brad and Robert Calkin, and brother in law, Gilbert Holsapple and his wife, Karen.

There will be no calling hours and services will be private at the convenience of the family. Janet will be buried in Cedar Park Cemetery in Hudson, N.Y.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Community Hospice of Columbia/Greene, 47 Liberty St. Catskill, N.Y. 12414.

Comments

---

“ I am so sorry for your loss John. My sincere condolences. Tom Ciampa

Tom "Tim" Ciampa - August 17, 2016 at 08:13 AM

---

“ Sending condolences to our good friends from Worth Ave. Jan was a lovely person and will be missed.

Dolly Eisner

Dolly Eisner - July 27, 2016 at 01:41 PM

---

“ John
My condolences to you and the family, our prayers are with you.
May her soul rest in peace and that you stay strong for the ones you love.
Debbie and Bill Saksen.

Bill Saksen - July 27, 2016 at 01:11 PM

---

“ When I think of Jan, two things immediately jump into my head.
One was her radiant smile... a beam bright enough to light up a room.
Then there was her voracious game of ping pong.
I remember (and admired) her heart, and her strong, competitive spirit.
She truly was a champion!
She will be missed... by me... and so many others.
John, Tommy, Lisa, you are in my heart... and in my thoughts.

Rick Thayer - July 27, 2016 at 09:51 AM

---

“ MR. Holsapple and Family, we are so very sorry for your loss! About eight years ago I would share stories with the two of you about your Grandchildren and my Jack. It was never about us but always about the boys. Always keeping one another updated on their athletic accomplishments. It was kind of surreal that Jack and Jack had met on the hardwood not only facing each other (Ravena vs Fonda Fultonville) but guarding one another!!! Your Jack has turned into a fine fine young man. This boy last Monday came to me shaking my hand informing me on how you were feeling. I know you are looking down on those grandchildren and will continue to do so as you cherished every moment of them as they did u..... I will miss our chats, but Mr. Holsapple will have to keep me posted. I love him but you did a much thorough job. Lol. You will be missed. God bless from Kyle, Jackson, and Carly Atty

kyle atty - July 26, 2016 at 01:51 PM

---

“ To the Holsapple family from the Seiden family she will always be remembered by us as a great friend and an important part of our lives, she will be deeply missed.

judy seiden and family - July 26, 2016 at 09:42 AM

---

“ John and Family. My condolences to you and the family. I remember all the great times we had when the two of you would stop Carol's on the way to the lake.

Judy Cox

Judy Cox - July 26, 2016 at 09:15 AM