“ So saddened to see the notice at the Livingston transfer station of Al’s passing. For over 18 years, he was always a welcome sight and, whenever I would get confused about the bags (which was embarrassingly often), he would always explain patiently. Such a kind heart and good humor. He could make a bad day good. We are a smaller world without him.

My condolences to Al’s family and friends 💔 Al’s kind words contagious personality and smile will forever warm my heart . I and my family knew him as the “nice man at the dump” when my children were very small he gave them these old vintage metal trucks to hang on their wall in their room .My boys were over joyed that he was so nice to them . They are now 27 & 25 and they still have them hanging on the wall at my home and remember that day with big smiles . So to Al’s family and friends I want you to know he touched many hearts with his kindness . God Bless
