

Dr. Anil Kumar Khullar

September 10, 1955 - December 20, 2014

Dr. Anil Kumar Khullar, 59, passed away suddenly on Saturday, December 20th, 2014 at Albany Memorial Hospital.

He was born September 10th, 1955 in Jalandhar, India, the son of Prem Nath and Janak Khullar. He attended Sawai Man Singh Medical College in Jaipur, India, graduated in 1980 and completed his Cardiology training at Bronx-Lebanon Hospital Center. After marrying his wife, Pinky Khullar, he settled in Valatie, NY, dedicating his time to Twin County Medical Associates' Cardiology group for over 25 years.

Anil's greatest joy was his family and friends. He shared his love for learning, laughter, chai, and Jets football. He took great pride in his work at Twin County Medical Associates and Columbia Memorial Hospital. He was an active part of his coworkers' and patients' lives.

He leaves behind his wife of 32 years; his daughter, Neha Khullar and her husband, Michael T. DiRusso; and his son, Rishi Khullar. He is also survived by his father and mother; his brother, Sunil K. Khullar; his sister, Meenakshi Katyal and her husband, Kapil Katyal; and a host of long-time friends.

A viewing will be held on Tuesday, December 23rd from 9-11 a.m. at Bates & Anderson – Redmond & Keeler Funeral Services in Hudson, NY. A celebration of his life and funeral arrangements will be held at the family's convenience. Memorial donations may be made to Columbia-Greene Hospital Foundation or the American Heart Association in his honor.

“ Sandy and I were grateful to have known you and be cared for by you for 12 years, Dr. Khullar. Your smile and deep caring about us and Sandy's health was such a comfort to us. Just on Friday in your office, I was touched that you asked about the shows we do -- showing how you cared about us, as always. You will be missed by so many.
