

Ann Skibo

October 12, 1928 - April 15, 2020

Ann (Lupinos) Skibo, 91, of Hudson, passed away April 15, 2020 in Valatie, NY. Born October 12, 1928 in Hudson, NY, she is the daughter of John and Paraska (Raga) Lupinos. A lifelong Hudson resident, Ann was a graduate of Hudson High School Class of 1946. She retired after working for 43 years at the Universal Match Corporation as a printing press operator. Ann was a communicant of Holy Trinity St. Mary's Parish in Hudson, along with being a member of the Christian Service Committee. She was a former member of Sacred Heart Church and the Ladies Sodality. Ann was also a member of the Greenport Senior Citizens and Greenport Fire Co. Ladies Auxiliary. She loved to read, and will be fondly remembered for her wit, sense of humor, and always telling a fun joke.

Ann is survived by her son Joseph Jr. and his wife Maria, daughter Kathleen, grandchildren Jason and Emily, along with several nieces and nephews. In addition to her parents, Ann was predeceased by her husband Joseph Skibo, brothers Joseph and William Lupinos, and sisters Helen VanWagner, Marion Scheu, and Barbara Olchoway.

Graveside prayers followed by interment will be Monday at 2:00 in Cedar Park Cemetery. Visitation at Bates & Anderson Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be Sunday from 12-2pm. A Memorial Mass for Ann will be celebrated at a future date. Contributions in memory of Ann are welcome to be made to Holy Trinity St. Mary's Parish P.O. Box 323 Hudson, NY 12534

“ We have known Ann for quite a while from St. Mary’s Christian Service Committee. She was so much fun to be with, always laughing and joking. We wanted to attend her visitation and burial, but because of some lung issues did not dare to come. She has been missed during her illness and we will continue to miss her and pray for her and all of her family. We send our sincere condolences. I am sure she is causing much hilarity in heaven. We send our love to you, Ann. Dick and Pat Nobes
