

Anna Barone

February 20, 1927 - March 13, 2022

Anna Barone, age 95, peacefully entered eternal heaven on Sunday, March 13, 2022. Born in Hudson on February 20, 1927, she was one of seven children of the late Guido and Domenica (Ugilini) Lippera. She was predeceased by her husband of 47 years John M. Barone, Sr., who passed away in 1994 and who served honorably and heroically in the USN in World War II.

A child of the Depression, Anna attended Hudson City Schools, leaving during the War years to work at the Universal Match in Hudson. She later became a wife, full-time mother and homemaker. Anna returned to the workforce in 1969, with employment at Candy Lane, the Jamesway Department store, and returning to the Universal Match until her retirement from the Match in 1988. Anna's many interests and talents included preparing and cooking delicious foods, creating impressive floral arrangements, and later becoming well-known for her very elaborate Halloween and Christmas decorations in her home.

A woman of strong faith, Anna was a life-long parishioner and communicant of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church in Hudson until its closing in 1990. She then became a devoted parishioner and communicant to the Sacred Heart/Our Lady of Mount Carmel Shrine in Greenport. She had an exceptionally strong devotion to the Holy Mother and Saint Anthony, constantly praying the Rosary and the St. Anthony Chaplet.

Anna is survived by her sons John M. (Dawn) Barone, Jr., and Thomas A.

Barone both of Hudson. Anna was the proud and devoted grandmother of Michael (Dayana) Barone of Hudson, Joseph (Ali) Barone of Valatie, Major Patrick Barone, USA, of Fayetteville, NC, and Stephanie Barone (Cole Alaxanian) of Latham. She was also blessed to be the great-grandmother to James, Julianna, Nathaniel, twins Isabella and Gaetano, Marcus, Cobie, and Catherine Barone. Also great-grandmother to Arlo and Valentino Alaxanian and Deanique Pena.

Anna was predeceased by her brother Nichola Lippera and sisters Ada Grand, Giacomina Barone, Dora Graziano, Mary Davi and twin sister Frances Stone. She is survived by many nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews. Anna had a special loving and caring relationship with her niece Monica Lippera. Anna cherished the time she had with her family members and life-long friends, especially Daria Leccese, William Fisher, Alice Cordato, Fr. Paul Francis, and Carmine and Carol Ciancetta. She was also blessed in her later years to have the friendship and assistance of her trusted care-givers Annmarie, Kathy, and Melissa.

Calling hours will be held on Thursday, March 17, 2022, from 1:00-3:00pm and 6:00-8:00pm at Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, 110 Green Street, Hudson. A traditional Latin Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated on Friday, March 18, 2022, at 10:00am at Sacred Heart/Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Shrine, Rte. 9, Hudson, NY. Interment will follow at Cedar Park cemetery in Hudson. In lieu of flowers, Anna's request was that donations be made to the Sacred Heart/Our Lady of Mount Carmel Shrine.
