“ Denise and Florence

I only met your mom once in Dr. Martin's office, but I know from my relationship with both of you, that she must have been a wonderful lady having raised two fine daughters like the two of you. May God's mercy and grace continue in your lives and in the lives of your family members during this time of celebration of your mother's life. Constance and I send our love.

“ Denise, Florence, and Art,

I am so very sorry to hear about your Mom. I know she had a long line of greeters waiting for her as she crossed into Heaven and especially your Dad, grinning from ear to ear. I can only imagine if there is Bingo in Heaven, she and mom are there together.

*Love,
Shelly*
