“ To Nancy especially, Jack and I have a treasured memory of sitting with you, Sherwood and Anna Mae, a day and through the night until Alyx was born. We talked, laughed, paced the floor, and tried to sleep on those benches at Albany Med. She was a lovely, lovely person. So sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,

Carol and Jack

“ Anna Mae was one of my first clients when I opened my salon on Warren Street. She supported my dream of owning my own salon, and was instrumental in helping me financially through the bank. I will always be grateful. Rest in peace Anna Mae.
