

Anna J. Morrison

May 22, 1930 - November 14, 2025

Anna Marchionne Morrison, 95, of Hudson, passed away peacefully on November 14, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. Born in Hudson, New York on May 22, 1930, she was the daughter of the late Dominic and Carina Marchionne. Anna was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She graduated from Hudson High School in 1948 and spent her early years working in her family's businesses, Lawrence Tavern and Moxie's. After raising her children, she went on to work as an aide in the Hudson City School District, where her love of children and her joy in watching them learn made a lasting impact on her.

In 1950, Anna married the love of her life, Harris Morrison. She cared for him with unwavering devotion throughout his illness until his passing in 1990. Anna poured her heart into her family and was the center of her home and the one whose presence made every gathering whole. Her kitchen was her happy place, and she was most joyful when feeding the people she loved. She was known for her cookies, pies, and especially her homemade pasta and ravioli. She proudly carried on Italian and family traditions, especially her beloved Christmas cookies, a tradition her children and grandchildren continue today.

Anna was the heart of the Morrison and Marchionne families and the cherished matriarch to all who knew her. She is survived by her children David (Debbie) Morrison of Cary, North Carolina; Diane Melino of Hudson; Gary (Ellen) Morrison of Claverack; Cathy (Gene) Gierka of Orlando, Florida; Debra (Robert) Kroder of Orlando, Florida; Carol (Chuck) Peters of Hudson; and Christopher (Tina) Morrison of Hudson. She is also survived by her grandchildren Lara Wise, Michael Melino, Michele Melino, Jennifer Burch, Brandon Morrison, Tim Morrison, Josh Losse, Christina Painter, Alexis Peters, Ethan Peters, Aidan Morrison, and Sophia Morrison, along with several great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and extended family who loved her deeply.

Anna was predeceased by her parents, her husband Harris, her son Bruce Morrison, grandson Jay Melino, and her siblings Dr. Anthony Marchionne, Nicholas Marchionne, Amelia "Millie" Yusko, Mary Mesick, and Dominic "Moxie" Marchionne.

Beyond her love for family, Anna enjoyed reading, traveling, going to the casino, watching movies, and Friday nights out with her friends. In her later years, despite the challenges of illness, she found joy in the simple things such as visits from loved ones, sweet treats of ice cream and candy, and sharing stories with her cherished caregivers and nurses. Her face always lit up when her grandchildren were near, and time spent with them was her greatest comfort.
