

Anna L. Tamburro

October 1, 1915 - June 22, 2012

Anna L. Tamburro, 96, of Hudson, passed away Friday, June 22, 2012 at Whittier Skilled Nursing Center in Ghent, surrounded by her family.

Born October 1, 1915 in Caserta, Italy, she was the daughter of the late Antonio and Madelina (Pratillo) Tamburro. Anna emigrated to the United States in 1922 with her mother and several siblings. Her father and two older siblings were already in Hudson. In 1938 she married Angelo Tamburro and moved to the Bronx, but came back to Hudson in 1949, where she resided until her death.

Anna was a wonderful mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She was a great cook and one of her pleasures was to see all her family around the dinner table. She enjoyed crocheting and made afghans for everyone in her family.

Mrs. Tamburro was employed as a seamstress at Nancy Ann Dress Company in Hudson. She was an active member of St. Mary's Church.

Anna is the beloved mother of Angelo S. (Karen) Tamburro of Greenport, Frank A. (Donna) Tamburro, Sr. of Claverack, and Richard J. (Janice) Tamburro of Phoenix, AZ; devoted grandmother of Frank A. (Courtney) Tamburro, Jr. of Claverack, Mark Tamburro of Colorado, Deborah (Timothy)

Fahey of Cumming, GA, and Amy (Phil) Melino of Kinderhook; loving sister of Antoinette Wilson of Catskill, and special great-grandmother of Nathan Melino, Mason Tamburro, Angelina Tamburro, Joseph Tamburro, Rachel Fahey, and Troy Fahey. Also surviving are two step-granddaughters, Alison Steinberg, and her family, of California and Heather (Lance) Smith, and her family, of Colorado.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband of 51 years, Angelo J. Tamburro, three sisters, Teresa Mangione, Mary Nero, and Michelina Tamburro, and three brothers, Vito, Frank, and Joseph Tamburro.

Visiting hours are 4-7 pm Monday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10 am Tuesday at St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

Interment will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Mary's Church, Box 323, Hudson, NY, 12534 or to Community Hospice of Columbia Greene, 47 Liberty St., Catskill, NY, 12414.
