

Barbara L. Hoffman

November 25, 1941 - January 27, 2026

Barbara L. Hoffman, 81, passed away peacefully on January 27th at Pine Haven Nursing Home.

Barbara was born on November 25th, 1944, in Hudson, NY to John F. Garry and Amelia Sebulski. Barbara was married to the love of her life Joseph R. Hoffman on June 11th, 1967, in Hudson, NY.

After graduating from Hudson High in 1962, Barbara went to work at the attorney general's office at the state capital as a stenographer/ private secretary. After staying at home for several years to raise her daughter, Barbara then went to work at the Hudson City Savings Bank, Columbia County Social Services and The Town of Greenport as a secretary to the building inspectors.

Barbara and Joe were married for 55 years and blessed with one daughter Michele Maxfield (Shawn). Michele had twin daughters Ashley and Paige. Barbara did everything for her daughter and grandchildren and loved her family with all her heart.

Her greatest achievement in life was her family. Barbara enjoyed her time with her daughter and granddaughters. They were blessed to have a beautiful unbreakable bond. She enjoyed shopping, the casino and spending time with her family.

Barbara was predeceased by her soul mate, her husband Joe Hoffman, her parents and her brother John Garry.

Barbara is survived by her daughter Michele Maxfield (Shawn), her grandchildren Ashley, Paige and Cody (Megan), and several nieces, nephews and cousins.

Barbara will be greatly missed by her loved ones.

Visitation is Thursday January 29th from 11am to 1pm at Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home in Hudson, NY followed by graveside service at 1:30pm in Cedar Park Cemetery.
