

Barbara Ann Naegeli

April 1, 1938 - July 29, 2011

After a dignified struggle with cancer, Barbara Ann (Ziemba) Naegeli, 73, passed peacefully with family surrounding her on Friday, July 29, 2011.

Barbara was a dedicated civil servant with the Columbia County Department of Social Services and the Hudson City School District. However, the work that she really put her heart into was being wife to James, and a mother to Diana (Naegeli) and Peter Kipp of Claverack and Michael and Melissa (Friss) Naegeli of Stuyvesant, and a sister to Joan Ziemba of Virginia. She continuously shared smiles, hugs, love, laughs and fun with grandsons, Jay Kipp, Alex Kipp, Stephen Naegeli, Daniel Naegeli and Andrew Naegeli and granddog, Sweet Maggie.

She was predeceased by her mother, Helen (Logan) Ziemba, her father John Ziemba and her step-mother, Francis (MacCormack) Ziemba.

An avid craftsperson, Barbara's interests and hobbies were wide and varied from photography, stained glass work, scrollwork, quilting and sewing, to needlework. She enjoyed reading, the theatre, and musical concerts. Barbara was very active in the community working with the catholic church sodality, bible studies group, senior citizen travel, and volunteering with the Salvation Army soup kitchen and volunteering in the local schools. Her truest passion was spending time with and cooking for friends and family. Her sweetness, humor, and special light will be a treasured memory to many.

Calling hours are 4-7 pm Wednesday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10 am Thursday at St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

Donations to the Columbia-Greene Community Hospice will be deeply appreciated.

“ Barbara was a lovely soft spoken lady, I will always remember the good times that we shared at Sacred Heart Church and the fun we had in the Ladies Sodality. And those slippers that she taught me how to crochet? Everyone got them for Christmas that year. My condolences to you Jim and to all of your family.....Sharon Zempko
