

Betty Lou Meltz

April 30, 2018

Betty Lou (Riegel) Meltz, 76, passed away April 30, 2018 at Florida Hospital Heartland in Sebring with her beloved husband Emil by her side.

Betty Lou and her husband Emil were proprietors of Meltz Lumber Co. in Mellenville. For many years Betty Lou worked side by side with Emil serving as an officer, growing their company to the success it continues with to this day. Betty Lou was known for her love of enjoying all people. She was gifted in hospitality and her doors were always open for family, friends, and anyone in need. She was an accomplished cook and always had enough for a pop in guest. She was proud of her home in Avon Park, FL. which served as their winter residence.

Betty Lou always had a smile and a joyful spirit, along with a sense of humor no one could compare. She loved studying the bible and church functions as a member of People's Bible Church in Claverack. Her heart was pleased as she was being blessed with grandchildren and great grandchildren. She and Emil loved riding on his motorcycle in their younger years, and driving about in their many vintage automobiles. They so enjoyed the many friends they met ball room and country dancing, and the numerous vacations they went on. She was a volunteer at Columbia Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, Mellenville Fire Co. Auxiliary, and the Mellenville Grange. Betty Lou was known for always putting others first. The least she could be remembered for is having a wonderful full life and one who will be greatly missed.

“ I was privileged to have been her doctor for a short while. She was a delight to speak with, always more worried about someone else than herself, apologetic to a fault. Emil always at her side. I am sad she passed on, happy she is no longer in pain. My sincere condolences to her family
