“ To the Family of Betty Plass,

I visited Betty maybe six weeks ago (?) at Pine Haven and met her nephew and his wife. For some reason, my uncle Fred Bernockie, an old friend of Betty and her husband, thought of her out of the blue and wondered how she was doing; so I volunteered to visit. He was happy to hear she was her usual smiling, sunny self.

He was 95 and passed away exactly a week before Betty, on May 30.

My sincere sympathy to her family and close friends on their loss.

Memories of a loving and handsome couple at St. Matthews to their move to Aunt Anna's house in Greenport. A true lady and devoted friend to all who knew her now joins her husband for heavenly eternity.
