

Carl Vernon Boyce

November 17, 1920 - August 18, 2012

Carl Vernon Boyce, 91, of Hudson, New York and Stuart, Florida, died Saturday, August 18, 2012 at Columbia Memorial Hospital surrounded by his family. Born in Rittman, Ohio on November 17, 1920, he was the son of the late Edgar and Anna Viola (Duskey) Boyce. Carl is survived by his wife of 69 years, Wanda Waters Boyce, a daughter, Pamela Boyce Kline, a son, Carl E. Boyce, four grandchildren, Travis Kline, Elizabeth Kline Murphy, Peter Nack, and Robbie Nack, and four great grandchildren, Gavin and Tait Kline, and Easton and Braden Murphy.

An outstanding athlete, Carl played football for both Wooster College and Ohio State. He served as Captain in the Army from 1942-1946 in WWII in Italy and North Africa. After the war, he continued his education at the University of Maryland and Cornell. From 1949 to 1965 Carl managed KB Products in Hudson. In following years he created and managed canneries in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Ecuador and Costa Rica. He was an adviser to AMCESA, American Mushroom Corporation Central American Division and was well respected in the industry.

Carl was an avid golfer, fisherman, and above all, a gentleman. He was a member of the Columbia Golf and Country Club, American Legion Post #62, the Elks, the Masons, the Columbia Greene Humane Society, the Claverack Fire House, the Society for the Prevention of Horse Thieves, and attended Christ Episcopal Church.

Memorial donations may be made in Carl's honor to Community Hospice of Columbia Greene, 47 Liberty St., Catskill, NY, 12414 or the Columbia Greene Humane Society, 125 Humane Society Road, Hudson, NY 12534.
