April 29, 1930 - September 24, 2024

CAROLYN FRANCES RUSSO (April 29, 1930 to September 24, 2024)

Carolyn F. Russo was born in Hudson, NY on April 29, 1930, to the late Francesco (Chi Chi) and Lena (Cariseo) Russo. She resided in Hudson for her entire life.

When Carolyn was 16, she began her employment career at Newberry's 5 & 10 cent store, then worked at the Farm Bureau and spent her 30 year career at IBM, Kingston, commuting daily with her brother John. While at IBM she was very active in numerous events and programs, including serving as the President of the IBM Club.

Carolyn was a proud and popular graduate of the Hudson High School Class of 1947. She worked on every HHS 1947 reunion committee.

She enjoyed crocheting, needle point and reading. She was a volunteer at the Hudson Library for over 20 years.

Though Carolyn was actually a very private person, she was devoted to her church and her family. She was a communicant of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church and an active member of Sacred Heart/Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Shrine.

She was known as a giving person; she took care of others. She took care of her parents, then her sister Mary. She was always there for her nieces and nephews, attending events, and parties and always so generous to them. She was their second mother. She will be missed by them most of all.

She is survived by a brother John (Margaret) Russo and her nieces Donna (Frank) O'Neil, Michele (Tim) Hutchings, her nephews Anthony (Kathy) Sandagato, Joseph (Debbie) Sandagato, Francis (Renee) Abitabile) and her godson and nephew Philip (Christine) Abitabile. These nieces and nephews were like her children, she was very involved in their lives. She is also survived by cousins, great nephews and nieces and great, great nephews and nieces. Along with her parents, she was predeceased by the sisters and brothers in law Christina (Joseph) Sandagato, Mary (Antonio/Tiney) Abitabile and her loving nephew Michael Sandagato.

Per her wishes, she requested a small private ceremony, with a closed casket. Family and friends are invited to attend a service by Fr. Steven Yusko at Bates and Anderson on Saturday September 28, at 9 am sharp. After the service, friends and family may pay their respects to Carolyn before she is brought to her final resting place next to her parents at Hudson Cedar Park Cemetery.

Carolyn always said in lieu of flowers she would want her friends and family to make donations in her name to a worthy cause of their choice.
