“ Ronnie and I got to know Charlie and Lucille when their wonderful son Nick married our Tamara. Leaves don't fall far. We soon learned what a masterful raconteur Charlie was. His storytelling of old times in Hudson kept us laughing. He and Lucille had the kind of love story many seek but rarely attain. Our condolences to Lucille and the Friss family. Heaven just got a lot more fun.

“ I first met Charlie and Lucille when I was 12 or 13 years old in the late 1960's when they purchased the house next to us on 8th St . in Hudson. Charlie quickly befriended all the neighborhood kids . Back then Charlie ran the pool hall on Columbia St. He would come home for dinner then take his place as the official pitcher in our nightly whiffle ball games involving the "Chicken Arms" and the "Bloopers".....names that Charlie made up for us. As the years went by and life got in the way I saw less of Charlie...SAD to say most of our recent conversations were held at funerals and COVID vaccine clinics.....but HAPPY to say that Charlie was still his jolly old self reminding me of how bad my NY GIANTS are ! Rest in peace Charlie.
