

Clayton B. Andrus

November 10, 1950 - May 3, 2022

Clayton Byron Andrus, 71, was born November 10, 1950 in Fillmore, NY. He passed away at his home in the town of Clermont on May 2, 2022. Clayton was the son of the late Thurston Andrus and Jean (Barringer) Andrus. Clayton graduated from Bolivar Central School in 1968 and from SUNY Alfred in 1972.

Clayton was employed by the NYS Office of Parks, Recreation & Historic Preservation for 32 years, at the Erie Canal Park in Kirkville, NY and at Olana State Historic Site in Hudson.

Clayton was an active community volunteer in the NYS Grange, as an EMT in local rescue squads, with Germantown Boy Scouts, the First Presbyterian Church of Hudson, and the Town of Clermont Planning board. He was an avid Buffalo Bills fan.

Clayton is survived by his wife of 44 years, Cindy (Rowe) Andrus, son, Edgar R. Andrus (Becky) and grandson Samuel of Cleveland, Ohio, and son Thaddeus Andrus (Amanda Laurence) of Albany. Also sisters, Lillian (Richard) Richardson of Morrisville, Laurinda Gearing of Troy and brothers, Glenn (Debbie) Barringer of Indianapolis, Indiana, Alfred Barringer of Morrisville, and Stanley Barringer (Kathryn) of LeRoy - also many nieces and nephews. Clayton was predeceased by his brothers Edgar E. Andrus and Benton Andrus. A memorial service will be held at the First Presbyterian Church of Hudson on May 7th at 3 pm, with a repast to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Twin Rivers Boy Scout Council at <https://trcscouting.org>

“ Shared a picture of Clayton at Alfred State. We were in the middle of setting up our Open House when they decided to take a picture of the Hort Club for the 1972 yearbook! Not our best look; I lightly highlighted Clayton's and my picture. So glad we kept in touch all these years, and my thoughts and prayers are with Cindy and the family.💕💕

“ Always a joy to see, and have exchange ideas and conversation Clayton enjoyed life and lived it to the fullest, in spite of health obstacles. He was so admired by anyone who met him.
