Romans 14:8

"If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord." As believers we find peace in knowing that in life or death, they belong to God and are in His care

“ My first memory of my step brother was when he returned from Vietnam and drove Dad's aqua car to Newtons store. People were swarmed around the car, asking him questions. To me ,10 years younger than him, it was a heroes welcome. I just watched. Next memory was watching him play guitar and sing, If I Were A Carpenter. I also remember how happy I was when he married Michele. I just felt like he got the happiness he deserved after serving our country. Memories last a lifetime! I know his parents and brothers welcomed him to heaven, but my heart hurts for Michele, his daughters, grandchildren and sisters. Will be praying for healing hearts! Sending love and hugs to all!
