“ I've known Kip , it seems, forever..back to the "Marsh's" day. He knew my father, Karl Winch, well. I remember them working together many times. My Dad was a carpender and would always recommend Kip to his customers when they needed flooring. He had great respect for him, as did I. He always had a smile and a friendly "Hello, how are you?" He was a fine person. Now he and Joan are back together. With deep sympathy
