“ Dan was my first born he made me so proud he was the best Dad .Dan loves Aries more then anything or anyone ! Dan had always triyed his best at everything he did ! Dan was a grait friend to alot of people he would.help anyone he could ! I love him so much and miss him so much its hard to believe he's moved on now I still wait for him to walk threw the door and tell me what advenchure he was just on, his sibilings Seph Medici and John DiBernardino love and miss him too. The love they have for each other was grait made me proud. Like all siblens they fought from time to time but they always managed to come togeather forgive when they needed to. My relashonship with Dan as his mom was one I can be proud of we tested each other as parence and children do but if eather one of us had a prob we always had each other to vent to I charush every memoriy I have of Dan and I know he's watching over all of us expecharaly Aries !! I'm glad as he got older I became a picture freak because I have captured some of that love he shows for his son !! Dan was a grait cook he did not get that from me he loved spending his Time with Aries and teaching him all kinds of things Dan knew his movies you could name part of a movie and he could tell you all about it he loved Margaretas He loved going to movies he loved hanging out with his friends he has 3 jobs at some points to make shore his son had what he needed. Dan would put Aries first always. Dan loved dragons and skulls I packed up his clothing I noticed alot of his clothing has wings on them well he reserved his last pair that day. Not a day that will go by that I won't talk to him and about him I can only pray that you all never forget him for he was such a loving person good hearted and was always wanting the best for others. He worked hard to give his son a grait life now he will be watching him from a higher place. I want to thank his friends that keep in contact with us and I can only hope there's more out there that will never forget his kindness. Love you Dan !!! You will never be forgotten !!! Dan loved his coffee and his power drinks like red bull he was working on building a home for Aries and him. He spent most of his free time with his son playing and teaching him things !! Dan injoyed vidio games also fishing and just hanging out with people he cared about rip Dan till we meet again then I'm giving you the biggest hug I'm making Dan a garden I have a face book group that is public for all to see I'm putting as much memories as I can in it so people can look and remember him fire works and fire pits storys and he could always make me laff he was a peace maker among his family and friends

PS

“ I first knew Dan as being one of his lunch ladies at Taconic Hills and then as a co-worker in the Swiss Hutte kitchen. He was funny, personable, smart, hardworking and always willing to lift, reach or carry anything for me.

We had many talks about life, some serious, some not. I'm glad I had those years as his co-worker to get to know him better.

He loved his son so much and worked as much as he could to support him. Dan's smile and sense of humor will be missed by many.

*I am so very sorry for your loss,

“ Dan was such a great dad to his son, he worked so hard to provide for him. He wanted nothing but the best for Aries... Aries loved his dad so much, and he really enjoyed playing the “monster game” with him. He will be very missed and I will never forget all the good times we had together. Sleep in Peace Dan, you will forever be in my heart. <3
