

David M. Wright

January 7, 1963 - August 9, 2024

David M. Wright, 61, of Ghent, passed away Friday August 9, at his residence. Born January 7, 1963 in Hudson, NY, he is the son of Henry D. Wright and Sadie (Bassney) Wright.

David was the owner-operator of DM Wright Trucking. Next to his family, his work was his greatest joy. David loved truck driving, as it was his passion. With a huge and kind heart, David was a friend to all. He epitomized generosity and would “give you the shirt off of his back” if you needed it. David enjoyed NASCAR (cheering for Mark Martin) and dirt track racing, country music (especially Randy Travis), and an occasional casino trip.

David had a special connection with his nephew Arthur. As a father figure to his “Little Dewey”, David is resting peacefully, knowing that he taught him well, and loved him unconditionally.

David leaves to cherish his memory, his mother Sadie Wright, siblings Debra Schultz (Erik), Henry Wright Jr. (Cindy), Pamela Wright and Wendy Wright (Martin McCredie Jr.), daughter Cassandra Duncan, two grandchildren Mason and Claire, and nieces and nephews Neil and Richard Jamieson Jr., Hank and Gary Wright, Lisa Huff, Erika and Christian Schultz, and Crystal, Amber and Arthur Dollar. Several aunts, uncles and great nieces and nephews also survive. David was predeceased by his father Henry D. Wright Sr. and his wife Ann (Nack) Wright.

Visitation at the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be Thursday August 15, from 4:00-6:00pm. Graveside prayers and interment will be Friday August 16, at 12:00pm in Mellenville Union Cemetery.

“ I went out with David back in the 80s. He moved to Long Island for a few months with us we always went back home to visit. We were on our way to church village where he stayed with his parents n Wendy when his truck died on 684 it Halloween we were going to take all the kids out trick or treat but never made it we sat there for hrs until a cop pulled up. David raced his blue mustang at the race track in Freeport ny he loved it. David was my heart even we split up n always will. Last time I seen him was in 13 we met up at a truck stop in fl n it was great to see him again . David I will never forget you you are always in my heart until we meet again love you.

“ Dave and my husband Guy were best friends when his family moved into Trailer Park in Hudson ! They remained friends for many years ! Then once Guy and I married we also became friends! Out trip to Atlantic City will always bring a smile (I can see you smiling right now Dave) We often bump into him (when he wasn't on the road) at the Chatham Fair for the tractor pulls ! Before Dave went into hospital to have his leg surgery we all went out to dinner ! Mom, Arthur and Dave , Guy and I ! Lots of laughs! Then went to visit him after his surgery in Albany ! I spoke to Dave the day before his passing, he was looking forward to walking again ! Instead God had another plan ! Dave you are in no more pain and you're with your Dad and Annie now ! We will miss our fun times for sure- to many to write here but we will hold them close to our heart! Love you like a Brother !

“ David and I used to ride the school bus together back in the Claverack School days when we were little kids around the time his family had the old dairy farm on Stone Mill Rd. David was just a good all around guy that I never seen get mad. He was just a kind ole soul who was good spirited and did for others without expectations. My deepest condolences to his family and may he rest in peace.
