

Deborah Martin Jourdin

February 12, 1951 - October 11, 2015

Deborah Martin Jourdin, 64, of Kinderhook, passed away peacefully in her home on Sunday, October 11, 2015 with her family by her side.

She was born to the late Fred and Dorothy Martin on February 12, 1951 in Hudson.

Deb graduated as Valedictorian from the Hudson High School class of 1969 before marrying her husband, Mark, in August of that summer and going on to become a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother.

Anyone who met Deb could see what an exceptional woman she was - strong willed, brave, beautiful, intelligent, funny, and perpetually positive, with a smile always on her face. These traits were known best by those who loved her.

She is survived by her husband; her daughter, Yvonne (Jeffrey), of Kinderhook; her grandson, Lucas; and her two brothers, Fred Martin (Jean) of Tucson, Arizona and Alan Martin of Stottville.
