

Dennis J. Seminara

February 25, 1955 - May 28, 2022

Dennis J. Seminara, age 67, of Claverack and Brooklyn, NY, left this life on May 28, 2022 after a long struggle with emphysema.

Dennis owned two tattoo shops in Hudson – Curly's House of Tattoos and Joyful Koi. He apprenticed in Brooklyn at a young age and never lost his appreciation for the art.

Dennis was a fierce protector of his family and home and a warrior for human and civil rights, particularly the 1st and 2nd Amendments. He served in the Army as a medic in the Vietnam War and had the deepest respect for all veterans' courage and service.

His many friends loved him for his brilliance on nearly any topic – especially history – and his often irreverent sense of humor. Not one to suffer fools gladly, he spoke bluntly and unapologetically, rustling some feathers along the way. Conversely, he would open his heart and listen with kindness and warmth to anyone who needed a helping hand.

He is survived by 2 sons whom he cherished, George and Christopher, and his wife and life companion of 33 years, Karen Rosand.

A celebration of his life is being planned for a later date.
