He was also an active member of the First Reformed Church of Hudson where he served as Deacon and sang in the church choir.

“ I'm so sorry to learn of Don's passing. He was always one of my favorites, always a gentleman, always and snappy dresser, and a treat to watch dancing with Marcella at the Hotaling Family reunions. God Bless him on his journey to be with The Lord.

“ Altho' I only knew Don for the last few years at church, I knew him as a loyal, kind and steadfast worker at the First Reformed Church. He will be missed.
