

Dora S. (Wishengrad) Jackowitz

November 19, 1912 - February 5, 2014

Dora S. (Wishengrad) Jackowitz, 101, passed away at Atria Woodbriar Assisted Living in Falmouth, MA. She and her beloved husband of 66 years, Sam, were born - six months apart - raised and lived in Hudson until he died 10 years ago. Dora is survived by her devoted daughters, Leslie Ramler and her husband, Alvan, of Wings Neck, MA and Summerland Keys, FL, and Ann Jackowitz and her partner, Barbara Taff, of New York City and Fleischmanns, NY. Dora also is survived by her adoring grandchildren: Dari Quirk and her husband, James, and great-grandchildren, McKenna and Colton; Allison Miller and her husband, Edward, and great-grandchild Grayson, and Douglas Ramler and his wife, Jennifer, and great-grandchildren Duncan, Sam, Owen and Max, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Longtime a pillar of the community and volunteer extraordinaire, Dora divided her time between Congregation Anshe Emeth where, at the time of her death, she was the oldest living member, and Columbia Memorial Hospital. For decades, she chaired the Sick and Visiting Committee of the Synagogue, where she held leadership positions on its Board of Trustees, Sisterhood and Hadassah. For more than 40 years she, along with Sam, volunteered at the Hospital's Reception Desk and Snack Bar. In each of these roles, they were named "Outstanding Volunteer Couple."

She leaves a legacy of a lifelong love of family, learning, giving and sharing with others, which will be passed on for generations.

The Funeral will be held at 1pm on Friday at Bates & Anderson – Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home at 110 Green Street, followed by her internment at Cedar Park Cemetery. Contributions may be made to Congregation Anshe Emeth or to the charity of your choice.

“ *I am sorry for your loss.
Your Mom and Dad were the nicest people who helped so many at the hospital and did so much for the community.
I hope that you will be able to keep the good memories of them forever in your hearts .*
