

Doris Regina Ban

May 28, 1918 - December 7, 2012

On Friday, December 7, 2012, God welcomed a new angel, Doris Regina (Boyce) Ban, LPN.

Born May 28, 1918 in Mount Vernon, Indiana, she was the daughter of the late Edgar and Anna Boyce.

She grew up in Lodi, Ohio and was a graduate of Rittman High School. Later in life she graduated as an LPN from Columbia Memorial School of Nursing. She was a nurse at Columbia Memorial Hospital, Kring Nursing Home, and Eden Park Nursing Home. She was later a private nurse for the Frederick Church family and other local families. She will be remembered as a caring, loving nurse to many.

She was predeceased by her son, William Louis Nixon, four brothers, Jerry (Martha) Boyce, William (Camille) Boyce, Carl (Wanda) Boyce, and Jack (Norma) Boyce, and two sisters, Helen Shondel and Juanita Vavrina.

Besides being mother to William, she is the loving mother to Mary Ann Nixon (Jack) Piester, Donna Ban (David) June, and James L. Ban, Jr. (companion Nirell Hall); eight grandchildren, Vicki (Ken) Whelihan, Todd (Alison) June, John (Kate) Piester, Michael (Amy) Piester, Tim (Cyndi) Nixon, Amy Nixon, Heather (Chris) Gerard, and Ryan Nixon, and nine great-grandchildren.

Calling hours will be 11 am - 12:30 pm Monday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home with funeral services following. Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

Donations in her memory may be made to Hospice or the VFW.

The family would like to thank Hospice and the wonderful caregivers at Whittier Nursing Center in Ghent.
