

Earl "Butch" Layman

October 30, 1945 - December 13, 2016

Albany- Earl G. "Butch" Layman, 71, died Tuesday December 13, at Albany Medical Center. Born October 30, 1945 in Catskill, NY, he is the son of Earl and Ethel (Shufelt) Layman who predeceased him.

Butch lived most of his life in Hudson where he retired after 24 years of service with the Department of Public Works. He also had a career with the Canada Dry Bottling Plant, from which he also retired. Butch was a devoted member of the Federation of Polish Sportsmen, and was also a member of Elks Lodge #787. Family was very important to Butch. He adored and loved the time he was able to spend with his grandchildren Terry, John, Josh and Rachel.

Butch is survived by his wife Kathy (Caswell) Layman, daughters Kathelyn (Dave) Oberst, Martha (Kenneth) Westgate, son Michael Layman, niece Colleen Caswell, grandchildren Terry & John Layman, Josh & Rachel Oberst, and cousin Betty Johnson. Survivors also include numerous friends and extended family members.

Butch will be deeply missed by his two dear pets Mingo and Tiny.

Funeral services from the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be held Saturday at 10:00am. Interment will follow in Cedar Park Cemetery. Visitation hours at the funeral home will be Friday from 6-8:30pm.

“ Kathy is one of my best friends. Remembering when they started dating. Butch, a quiet guy from catskill, met his match made in heaven. 3 beautiful children, he will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. RIP my friend.
