“ Ed was a true friend of mine, as well as a mentor. He always liked to share his expertise and love of "all things steam" with others.

If one was lucky enough like me, teach them all that he knew.

I will miss you Ed.

“ Eddie loved my father, his Uncle Ralph. He would walk up to his house every Sunday with Antoinette just to spend time with him. My father took Eddie under his wing.

“ Deepest sympathy Antoinette and "little" Eddie.

I have fond memories when I first met Ed with the, largest and heaviest" plumbers wrench I had ever seen in the basement of 560 Warren Street. He was larger than life and a master tradesman. With much love for his family, home and collection - God bless.
