“ To Ryan and family, please know you are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.
I will always remember him doing things he loved; training, deer hunting, playing cards, and spending time with Ryan.

“ I had the pleasure of being Ed's sergeant the 10 years I worked at Greene.....What a great guy who would let you know how proud he was of his son Ryan.....Ed also would secretly hang a bag of his famous venison beef jerky on our doorknob at our house. He knew how much my wife and I enjoyed that treat! In corrections, we always remember the friends we have made, and they made an impression on our lives.....rest easy Ed...we are sending prayers to your family! RIP brother
