

Elizabeth Avella

February 12, 1951 - June 30, 2022

Elizabeth Avella, 71, of Hudson, NY, passed away Thursday June 30, in Albany, NY. Born February 12, 1951 in Queens, NY, she is the daughter of Daniel and Mary (Stimpson) Daly.

Elizabeth was a devoted mother to her son Patrick, whom she loved more than words could express. She loved nature and being outdoors, especially at the Hudson River. Enjoying a Philly cheesesteak, and tending to her plants and garden were some of her favorite things. Elizabeth was a faithful member of St. Mark's Lutheran Church and was a choir member. With her many challenges and obstacles throughout her life, Elizabeth never complained and was always upbeat and positive. She lived everyday of her life with grace and dignity.

Left to cherish her memory is her beloved son Patrick Avella, sister Susan (Joseph) Tschupp, nieces and nephews Kenneth Weiss, Joseph and Steven Tschupp, Kristen Fincik, Denise Layton, Deborah Pantano, James and Daniel Daly, Eric and Joseph Massaro, and Jennifer Kaba. Also surviving are sisters in law Theresa Avella and Carol Penkal, and devoted friends Beverly, Tammy and Robin. In addition to her parents, Elizabeth was predeceased by her husband Pasquale Avella, brothers Dennis and James Daly, niece Danielle Daly and sister in law Joanne Avella.

Visitation hours at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be Monday July 4th from 12:00-2:00pm with funeral prayers at 2:00pm. Interment will be at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Elizabeth may be made to St. Mark's Lutheran Church

8 Storm Ave. Hudson, NY 12534
