

Elizabeth Mayhood

March 3, 1922 - April 11, 2014

Elizabeth Mayhood passed away at Columbia Memorial Hospital on April 11, 2014 after a short illness.

Elizabeth was born on March 3, 1922 in Corona, New York. She was the daughter of Sadie and Frank Mayhood. The family moved to East Chatham in 1926.

Elizabeth attended Chatham Schools and graduated in 1940. She continued her education at NYU and Pratt Institute, receiving a Masters Degree in Dietetics.

She was the Head of the Dietary Department at John Andrus Memorial Nursing Home in Hastings-On-The-Hudson for 32 years. She was a member of the ADA and a life long learner.

Elizabeth was predeceased by her parents, and sisters, Evelyn and Marie. She is survived by nephews, David Sleezer (Mary), Barry Gimpel (Jean), and niece, Terry Lynn Knott.

There is no wake. The family will conduct a graveside service. A memorial service in celebration of her life will take place at the Mt. Pleasant Reformed Church at a later date.
