“ Am heartbroken to lose Ella from our midst. I have to remember that her faith was strong and her gifts will be in our hearts forever. She was a supremely loving and fiercely protective force in our lives, setting boundaries and seeing through things in a way that we could not. Whatever times I've had with her I treasure, whether in celebration, in work, in toughness and honesty. She was a person of magnificent integrity. And every year for so long, a beautiful wreath would appear on my porch....She never asked for anything but always gave everything. Much love and sympathy to her wonderful family. Cate
