

Eunice J. Keute

May 27, 1936 - April 9, 2021

Eunice Jane Keute, of Greenport, passed away peacefully in her home on April 9, 2021 at the age of 84.

Eunice was born May 27, 1936 in New York City to the late Muriel and Albert de Beaumont. Besides her parents, she was predeceased by Robert A. Keute Sr. in 1996, and a brother Albert de Beaumont Jr.

She married Robert A. Keute Sr. on October 1, 1955 in Bethpage, NY. She worked at Grumman Aircraft in Bethpage, Long Island. Before moving upstate she was very involved in the Ladies Auxiliary of the Plainview Fire Department. Together they moved from Long Island to Taghkanic in 1965 where she and Robert owned and operated the Taghkanic Motel before selling and starting the Vinyl Village Barn. She then went to work at Sausbier's Awning Shop in Hudson until her retirement in 2006.

Eunice was a very strong and independent woman who enjoyed many hobbies, including gardening on a bright sunny day and crocheting on a cold rainy day. She loved animals and gave many stray cats a safe haven. She loved her family, her friends and was very proud of her country.

She is survived by her two sons Robert Keute Jr. (Judy), Andrew Keute (Darlene); grandchildren Andrew Keute Jr. (Amy), Jessica Keute, Jenna Keute and Danielle Keute, as well as her great grandson Colton Keute. She is also survived by her brother Jonathan de Beaumont (Charlene) and her sister Muriel de Beaumont.

There will be no calling hours. Funeral services will be private. Memorial contributions may be made to Columbia Greene Humane Society or Animalkind in Hudson.
