

Floyd C. Murphy

May 30, 1955 - November 29, 2024

Loving Brother, Father, and Grandfather

Floyd C. Murphy passed peacefully in his sleep to be with his angels in heaven at Columbia Memorial on November 29, 2024 surrounded by his loved ones. He was known for his great sense of humor, and love for all people he came across throughout his journey of life. He was a hard working man devoting his career to the Firemen's Home as head dishwasher until he retired. He also cared deeply for his country, and had a great love for eagles. In his spare time he enjoyed taking pictures and shopping. He was predeceased by his parents Clarabelle and Michael Murphy, one of his many brothers Michael W. Murphy Jr., and daughter Jennifer Murphy. He leaves behind his many brothers and sisters Harriett Leftwich, Patricia Race, Jean Race, Debbie Nostrand, Andrew Murphy, Kimberly Hayes, James Murphy, Melissa Schermerhorn, his loving son Charles and significant other Andrea, his daughter Alita, along with his grandchildren, and many other loving relatives. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Columbia County Veterans Service Agency and Columbia-Greene Humane Society. Visitation at the Bates & Anderson- Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be Saturday December 7, from 11:00am-1:00pm, followed by prayers at 1:00. Interment will be in Mellenville Union Cemetery.

The family would like to thank Ghent Assisted Living for providing a loving home for the time he was with us all, his roommate for always looking out for him like a brother, and the staff at Columbia Memorial for their compassionate care during his final days with us.

“ When my son was a toddler (42-43 years ago) I used to go the the laundromat downtown on Warren St every Sunday there i met Floyd and his then partner. What fun we had doing laundry. He had such a great sense of humor. He would have me laughing. Always a gentleman whenever I would run in to him. My condolences to all who loved him
