Francine Macri

May 8, 1946 – February 18, 2026

Francine Marilyn Macri (formerly Micciche), most recently of Red Hook, NY, a beloved wife, mother and grandmother, passed away on February 18, 2026 following a prolonged battle with Alzheimer's disease. She was predeceased by one month, by her husband of close to sixty years, Joseph Macri. At the time of her passing, Francine was surrounded by her loving sons, Joseph F. Macri and Anthony Macri, as well close family.

Francine was born on May 8, 1946 and she was the eldest of three children (Francine, Joyce and Vincent) born to Frank Micciche and his wife, Stella Slominski Micciche, in Brooklyn, New York.

Francine and her husband, Joe, were married on September 4, 1966. They soon relocated to Farmingdale on New York's Long Island, where Francine and Joe's family grew. Francine was a homemaker and she grew to be a fabulous cook, baker and candy maker. Subsequently, Francine and Joe relocated to Elizaville, New York where their family resided for over twenty-five years. During this phase of their lives, Francine and Joe co-founded a popular pizza and ice cream restaurant where Francine cooked her well-loved Italian food specialties until her retirement.

Francine enjoyed spending time with her family. Her holiday meals were extraordinary. She also relished time spent with her grandchildren and attending their various recitals, plays and sporting events.

Francine's fond memories of 44th Street in Brooklyn, her aunts, uncles and cousins who lived on the same block, as well as her many, many trips to the beach at Coney Island, brought her great joy during her declining years.

Grandma Fran's food, her stories, and her warm, loving and caring nature will be deeply missed by her family and friends.

We thank the staff at Ghent Rehabilitation and Nursing Center for the care that they provided to Francine during her stay.

Visitation is scheduled for Tuesday, February 24, 2026 from 9:00 a.m. through 12:00 p.m. at the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home located at 110 Green Street, Hudson, NY.

A mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 12:30 p.m. at Holy Trinity Church, St. Mary's Parish, located at 429 E. Allen Street, Hudson, NY, followed by interment at Livingston Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Francine's name, earmarked for resources available to care givers, at the Alzheimer's Foundation <https://events.alz.org/fundraisers/josephmacri/in-loving-memory-of-francine-macri> or to a charity of your choice.

“ Anthony,
I was absolutely heartbroken to hear about the passing of your mother. I know there are no words that can truly touch the depth of what you are going through right now, especially coming so soon after the loss of your father. To lose both parents in such a short time is an unimaginable weight, and my heart truly goes out to you. Your mother was such a wonderful person, and it was so clear how much she loved you. It's a small comfort to think of her and your father together again, but I know their absence leaves a massive void in your life.
Please be gentle with yourself. You have been through so much lately, and it is okay to feel completely overwhelmed, but please know I am here for you at any hour if you just need to talk or sit in silence
Holding you close in my thoughts and prayers.
With deepest sympathy

Love Freddy & Tori

“ My dearest Aunt & Godmother, although you have already been loved & missed for years as you struggled with a devastating disease this final goodbye is bittersweet. I smile and take comfort knowing you are back with Uncle Joe and enjoying the time that was so sadly taken away from you both. We will remember you with love always, Grace & Tony

*With deep sadness I write this post to my dear Aunt Fran who I shared so many beautiful memories with through the years. Though life has been so cruel these last few years I will always hold in my heart our memories together. One being the "crunchies" in your chocolates (only a few will get this one)... I always want to remember you with a smile on my face. And now that you've reunited with our favorite uncle Joe I know you will also have a smile, that will be with you through all eternity. RIP dear Aunt Fran, until we meet again. Rest easy ❤️
