“ Tina, Peter and family....I was so sorry to hear about Aunt Gerry's passing....I can still hear her laugh (and Tina has the laugh) at all our family gatherings and with fond memories of such wonderful times when we were all growing up. My favorite memory of Aunt Gerry is one where I had taken my own two children to the Times Union for a skating show. I was in one of the boxes with my kid and friends when I saw a bunch of elderly woman and men work their way up to seats below the box we were in and all of a sudden I can hear laughing and I'm like - OMG - that is my aunt. And there she was - I went down to visit with her and it was so nice. She always brought such happiness to everyone....and I know she had a great life. Love Jodi (Wells) Sheridan and family
