“ When i was a young firefighter Glenn was our company leader Pocantico Hook and Ladder Co #1. It was trough his guiednence and leadership that help me realize a lifelong dream--becoming a full time career firefighter. Althoutg I lost track of Glenn after many years he was always in the back of my mind as i crawled down a hallway or i climbed a ladder. thats the kind of effect he had on the fire service. the lights in the fire service are a little dimmer today because of his passing but there are many firefighters out there that have learned form his wisdom.

“ I worked at the Firemen's Home about two years ago. We aren't allowed to really have "Favorites" but Glenn was different. With a way to put a smile on anyone, a laugh that was contagious and the heart of one of those old fashioned men, Glen was an amazing man. He will be missed very much.
