

Gloria Elizabeth Young

August 17, 1932 - April 2, 2012

Gloria Elizabeth Young, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away on Monday April 2, 2012 at Community Hospice at St. Peter's Hospital in Albany at the age of 79.

Born August 17, 1932 in Monck's Corner, S.C., she was the daughter of the late Carrie Bell Aiken.

She graduated from Burke High School in Charleston, S.C. and South Carolina State University in Orangeburg, S.C. with a degree in elementary education.

Gloria moved to Kingston, NY with her late husband, Esau Young, III. She worked for the State of New York at Eddie Parker Division of Youth Training School, and then the NY State Training School for Girls in Hudson. After that she worked at Brookwood School for Girls in Claverack. After working for the state for 23 years she retired in 1987.

She loved to watch and cheer for her favorite baseball and basketball teams, the NY Mets and the Los Angeles Lakers. She was also interested in beautifying her yard into a floral garden and was an avid bingo player.

In addition to her husband, she was predeceased by a brother, Harry Gist.

Gloria was the beloved mother of Kenneth Young, and his wife, Katherine, of Ghent, Allen Young of Chatham, Elaine Hinds, and her husband, Oliver, of Hudson, and Cheryl Bruggemann, and her husband, William, of Stottville and the devoted grandmother of eight grandchildren.

A calling hour will begin at 9 am Saturday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, followed by services at 10 am at the funeral home.

Burial will be private and at the convenience of the family.
