

Gregory Paul Cobbins

January 16, 1953 - November 2, 2011

Gregory Paul Cobbins, 58, of Hudson, passed away Wednesday, November 2, 2011 at Albany Medical Center.

Born January 16, 1953 in Hudson, he was the son of the late Dorothy and Jack Cobbins.

Greg completed his formal education in the Hudson City School District, graduating in June of 1971. He was well known for his athletic ability and rarely missed any game, whether he participated or was a spectator. He was employed for many years with the Division for Youth. His passion was sports, sports, and more sports. Everyone knew where Greg was concerned, if you didn't agree sportswise, just let it go.

He was an active member of Shiloh Baptist Church and attended on a regular basis. He later married Susan Clark and to that union a son was born.

Greg leaves to cherish his memory: two sons, Mark (Patricia) of Fredericksburg, VA and Chazz of Hudson; two brothers, Michael of Albany and Kevin of Hudson; two sisters, Janice (Paul) Haynes of Watervliet and Susan (Craig) Hedgecock of Rensselaer; his former wife, Susan; one grandson; his aunt, Beulah Crank, and many nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brother, Daniel.

Services were held Friday, November 4, 2011, at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

Burial was in Cedar Park Cemetery.

“ Good memories of working with Greg at DFY, especially the Saturday night midnight shift when we would listen to Doc Perryman's jazz show on WGY and running down to the kitchen to make hot chocolate at 4 AM. Rest in Peace,

To Greg's family and friends, my heartfelt condolences.
