Hazel, you were a caring, fun and truly great neighbor.

With love and kind memories.

“ Paul, Bruce, Ricky, Lynn, And Families,
My heart aches at this news. I love your mom like she was my own. Her humor was like no one else's. Her favorite thing to teach us (we all know what she taught us) was a lifetime “skill”. She introduced me to pepperoni sandwiches at a young age and they remain my favorite food of all time. Her memory will be with me forever. I love you all.
