Helen was born in Mitchell, South Dakota, but grew up in Joliet, Illinois, and was proud of her Midwestern roots. She graduated from Joliet Township High School and Metropolitan Business College in Joliet. During the war she was a secretary at the Navy plant in Rockdale, Ill. and there met her future husband, Gerald, who was being deployed to Guam. Upon Gerald's retirement from the Cemetery, they moved to Valatie where they lived for the past 40 years. Family was very important to Helen and they traveled to visit family scattered across the country, sightsee, and attend naval reunions.

While in Hudson Helen was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church, and in Valatie, St. Luke's. She loved her family, grandchildren, and great grandchildren.
