

Helen Polidor

January 9, 1918 - October 21, 2013

Helen Polidor, 95, of Hudson, passed away Monday, October 21, 2013 at the Firemen's Home. Born January 9, 1918 in Hudson, she was the daughter of the late Peter and Mary (Kurowski) Pichna.

During World War II, Helen worked on Aircrafts in the Buffalo area. She was employed as a machine operator at the Universal Match Factory in Greenport. Helen was a lifelong area resident, a member of St. Mary's Church in Hudson, a great cook, and loved to travel, especially Cape Cod. Her greatest love was for her grandsons.

Helen is survived by her daughter, Maria (William) Desmond of Valatie; her son, Thomas (Lynn) Polidor of South Carolina; two grandsons, Michael Desmond of Connecticut and David Desmond of Valatie; her sister-in-law, Julia Hallenbeck of Hudson, four great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband, Ludwig Polidor, and her sister, Jessie Dolan.

Visiting hours are 4-7 pm Thursday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

Prayers will be held at 11:30 am Friday at the funeral home, followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 12 noon at St. Mary's Church, 429 East Allen St., Hudson. Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

Donations may be made to the Firemen's Home, 125 Harry Howard Avenue, Hudson, NY, 12534.
