

Henry L. Cobb, Jr.

November 10, 1930 - October 19, 2012

Henry L. Cobb, Jr. was born November 10, 1930 in Providence, R.I. to the late Marjorie (Cooke) Cobb and Henry L. Cobb, Sr. and on Friday October 19, 2012 he took his rest at the VA Hospice in Albany, NY.

He attended and graduated from Hope High School in Providence where he was class president for four years and Smith Culinary School.

Henry served in the Korean War. After the war he was a full time salesman traveling to NYC, RI, VA, GA, CT, and MA. He sold "black Products", primarily black greeting cards and cleaning products. He was an ardent "Black History" buff and financially supported black colleges.

He leaves to cherish his wife of 48 years, Jean Burton Cobb, daughter Yvonne Cobb Rice, son-in-law, Peter A. Rice, Jr., two grandchildren, Cierra and Pierra' Rice of Hudson, one sister, Marjorie Elenore Cobb, two nieces, Fern Jackson Trice (Norman) and Amber McHale (and children), all of Pawtucket, R.I., and two cousins, Laverne and Gloria of Atlanta, GA.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his sister, Barbara Cobb Jackson.

A calling hour will begin at 1 pm Wednesday at the Bates & Anderson -

Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, followed by services at 2 pm at the funeral home.

Graveside services will be held at 1 pm Thursday at Riverside Cemetery in Wakefield, R.I.

The family would like to thank Community Hospice of Columbia Greene for their great care and Mary Ellen Charron.

“ Yvonne - Condolences to you on the passing of your Dad. Altho I did not know him, he certainly had to take pride in you and the grandchildren. I know first hand how hard it is to say goodbye to a grampa. Becky S. (from the consignment shop, tennis lessons and softball with MY grandchildren) God bless your family.
