

Henry D. Glovanovitch

March 30, 1946 - March 30, 2017

Dale, 71, also known as "Yank" to his friends, passed away March 30, 2017 at his home in Charlotte North Carolina. He was born and raised in Hudson, the son of the late Henry and Grace Glovanovitch. He was an avid basketball fan and loved watching NCAA basketball. He played on the 1963 championship team for Hudson High School. He also played basketball in the Air Force while stationed in Oxnard, CA. Dale served in the United States Air Force for 4 years and completed a full tour in Vietnam. He worked for Consolidated Freight for many years before his retirement.

Dale was an individual who lived life on his own terms. He spoke his mind and made few apologies. He had many friends and if he liked you, you could count on him to be there for you.

Dale is survived by his daughter Amy Jo and her husband, Ray Ellis of Mount Morris, New York, and his brother James Glovanovitch of Windsor, California, and several cousins throughout the country.

On August 19, 2017 at 11:00 AM, a graveside service will be held at Cedar Park Cemetery, Hudson.
