

Howard F. White

July 26, 1915 - July 11, 2012

Howard F. White, 96, of Claverack, died Wednesday, July 11, 2012 at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

Born July 26, 1915 in Forty Fort, Pennsylvania, he was the son of the late Ira and Dorothy White.

He graduated from Philmont High School. Howard retired in 1981 from the V & O Press after 40 years as a production clerk. He was a member of the First Reformed Church in Hudson where he served on the consistory and taught Sunday School.

Howard is survived by his wife, Ruth E. (Smith) White; two sons, John F. White and William H. (Elaina) White, all of Grand Junction, Colorado; two granddaughters, Natasha and Erica; a sister-in-law, Harriet White of Coatesville, Pennsylvania, and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was predeceased by three brothers, Albert Dean White, Robert Lynn White, and Sterling White, and one sister, Rosemary White.

Howard was a kind loving man to his family and friends. He was a gun lover only for target practice, he wouldn't hurt a flea. He was a great animal lover. Also in his senior years he wrote poems for his church and the Register Star.

His last poem being at age 96 for the paper.

Services are private and at the convenience of the family.

"WHO" by Howard F. White

November 2011

Who made the sun, the moon and the stars?

Who created Jupiter and Mars?

Who controls the sea and the tide?

Who walks always by our side?

Who hears our every prayer and call?

Who is Lord and Master of us all?

Who gave us his only begotten son?

So that our war with Satan could be won?

If God is your answer to all of the above,

Then you know Him and are secure in his love.
