“ Ida Rose was my grandmother . I was blessed and very honored to have her for 46 years of my life I was so lucky to have her all those years .Gram was a giving person who taught me the value of doing good for neighbors friends and community. She taught me to see the world threw open eyes and treat everyone i met with respect and caring .Gram was a very kind woman who if she knew of a person in need would go out of her way to help them .She taught me never to judge others and be the kind of person who if i saw litter on the street dont asume others will pick it up be the other that makes a diffrence .A memory that will never leave me is walks with gram she would burst out singing and didnt care who herd her . i use to get emberaced now like her i just do it i like to think it spreads joy because thats what she did for me . All my love Gram !
