

James Propst

November 20, 1949 - June 5, 2026

James Propst, 76, passed away peacefully on June 5, 2026, at Albany Medical Center. He was born on November 20, 1949, in Hudson, to the late James and Dorothy (Van Housen) Propst. A graduate of Hudson High School's Class of 1968, James embarked on a career defined by diligence and service. He spent many years working as a cleaner, including a significant tenure at WalMart in Catskill, where his dependable nature was well regarded. Later, he continued his work ethic as a clerk at the Extra Mart in Craryville. In 1969, James answered the call to serve his country by joining the United States Army. Over the course of eight years, until 1985, he faithfully fulfilled his duties with honor and integrity.

Away from work and service, James found joy in simple pleasures and meaningful pastimes. An avid bowler, he participated in multiple leagues throughout the capital region, where his love for the sport brought community and camaraderie. He also cherished spending time watching movies and making memories with his family—moments that illuminated his otherwise reserved personality.

James is survived by his son, James Propst; his stepdaughter, Nina Hartmann; and his brother, Richard Propst and his wife Julianne. He also leaves behind several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, Margaret Propst, and his sister, Patricia Cherubino.
