“ Dear Uncle Doug, Becky, Kim, Carol Ann and Marcia,
Please accept my condolences for your loss. It was a sad day when I heard Janice had passed. I have many fond memories of her and will never forget her. I do not get to visit that often anymore but I was glad that I got to see her this past summer.

“ Dear Doug and girls,
Please accept my condolences. It was such a shock to read that Janice had passed. She was so supportive and a real friend during our year in Headstart continuing every time I saw her. She had a wonderful sense of humor and half the fun of a bagel was to check in with her.

I'll never forget her.

God is good and His will be done. My prayers for all of you.

Sincerely, Mary Coons
