

Janice M. Haynes

November 3, 1957 - October 24, 2022

Janice Marie Haynes was born on November 3, 1957, to the late Dorothy Iona Crank and the late Gus (Jackie) Earl Cobbins. She received her formal education in the Hudson City School District and graduated in 1975. She then received an associate degree in liberal arts from SUNY Delhi and later went on to further her education at Mildred Elley College, Janice then received an associate degree in criminal justice. She became a paralegal for the New York State Assembly under former Governor, George Pataki. Janice worked at The Register Star for many years as the Director of Advertisement and then went into retirement. Due to her love for children, she returned to work and was employed with the Troy City School District in the transportation (Durham) department. Janice became a valued mentor and influenced the youth.

Janice accepted Christ early on in her life and was an active member of Shiloh Baptist Church. She enjoyed being in nature and devoted most of her time and energy to the well-being of her family.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 42 years, Paul Franklin Haynes Sr., and children: Ife Tayo Cobbins, Paul Franklin Haynes Jr. and Justin Maurice Haynes, and her brother, Kevin Cobbins. She has one granddaughter: Cirai Faith Haynes and one Godson: Quintin Cross. She also enjoyed her time with her cousins: Kimberly and Jeffery Crank and niece and nephews: Marc Cobbins, Kimberly Cobbins, Michael Collins and James Williams. She is also survived by many relatives from the Crank, Cobbins, Mackey, Holloway and Vanalstyne families.

She is predeceased by her mother, father, brothers, and sister: Dorothy Crank, Gus Cobbins, Michael Cobbins, Greg Cobbins, Daniel Cobbins and Susan Hedgecock.
