“ So many memories most people wouldn't even know. I learned to swim in your pool, hang laundry inside, cook early in the morning before it got too hot. I think I was the only person that didn't have to move the seat in your car to turn it around, so it was facing out when you left dad's house. Polish club won't be the same without you being there. Love you grandma and will miss you. Tell daddy I miss him and straighten his ass out up there
